IN THE MATTER OF THE ADOPTION) OF A COMBINED BOND AND) VIOLATIONS BUREAU SCHEDULE)

JOURNAL AND JUDGMENT ENTRY
(Amendment to Court Rules)

The following schedule is hereby adopted to be effective in this Court as of May 18, 2020 to serve as the combined bond and violations bureau schedule. All such schedules previously adopted are hereby superseded.

CRIMINAL AND TRAFFIC BOND SCHEDULE

For the following Misdemeanor and Traffic offenses, a defendant may post the indicated bond in lieu of appearance in accordance with Rule 13 of the Ohio Traffic Rules: (Appearance is not required merely because the defendant was involved in an accident.)

Each defendant must post the bond set forth below plus the stated amount for court costs, but the defendant is only required to post one court cost amount, which shall be the highest court cost for any of the defendant's alleged offenses. (Note: costs are due for each separate case, not each separate charge.)

For municipal ordinances, for which there is no equivalent Revised Code section, the Court sets the bond as follows:

Squealing/Peeling tires	50.00	95.00
Noise/burning violations	50.00	95.00

The Court further incorporates into this order the separate schedules of bonds for hunting law and/or P.U.C.O. (equipment) violations which may be adopted from time to time by this Court.

This bond schedule shall apply in similar amounts to all local ordinances which can be identified as being substantially the same as the state code violation.

In the event the defendant is charged with of any of the offenses listed above or in any separate schedule of bonds which is listed as being a second moving violation within one year, the defendant may post a bond in lieu of appearance in the amount of the fine listed in the schedule plus Fifty Dollars ($50.00).

Bond for all offenses more serious than first degree misdemeanors, including felonies and capital cases, and bonds for certain violent misdemeanors listed in the next paragraph must be set within 48 hours of the defendant's arrest by a judge of this Court.

The misdemeanors which require the court to set bond are: Domestic Violence, Violation of a Protection Order, Assault, Menacing by Stalking, Aggravated Menacing, Permitting Child Abuse, Escape, Endangering Children, Telecommunications Harrassment, Witness Intimidation, and any jailable Sex Offense. The bond in any of these misdemeanor cases, whether cash or surety, personal recognizance, or 10%, shall contain the express Bond Conditions set forth on attached Exhibit A, unless there is no alleged victim.

For all bonds set in any misdemeanor case which carries a possible penalty of incarceration (not minor misdemeanors), whether Personal Recognizance, Cash or Surety, or 10%, the Defendant shall pay a surcharge required by law in the amount of $25.00 within 5 business days of the setting of bond.

For all misdemeanors not listed above, (nor listed in any other bond schedule which may be adopted by the by the Court for P.U.C.O. violations, or for hunting and fishing law violations) an appearance is mandatory. However, the arresting or bonding officer may permit a defendant to sign a personal recognizance bond, post a 10% bond in the amount indicated, or completely excuse bond when such bond is not deemed necessary by the officer to assure the defendant's court appearance, and the officer reasonably believes the defendant is not a danger to the defendant or others.

In all misdemeanor cases, other than those listed above, where the court is required to set bond, the arresting officer may, where the officer reasonably believes that bond is not necessary to assure the defendant's court appearance and the officer reasonably believes the defendant is not a danger to the defendant or others, the officer may issue a summons in lieu of a warrant.

The bond schedule for offenses not listed above is as follows:

Misdemeanor 1	1000.00	Misdemeanor 2	750.00
Misdemeanor 3	500.00	Misdemeanor 4	250.00

When an offense is not specifically denominated by the Revised Code as a particular class of misdemeanor, the bond for that offense shall be set by comparing the penalty indicated by the Revised Code for the offense to the penalties for the classes of misdemeanor listed above.

Any bond may be posted by use of a valid credit card pursuant to procedures in effect through the Clerk of Courts.

Upon the adoption of this Journal and Judgment Entry, the Clerk shall mail a copy of this document to every law enforcement agency headquartered within the area of jurisdiction and provide a copy to the Secretary of the Columbiana County Bar Association.
